Association of Social Work Boards Confidentiality Statement

The Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) requires that all examination candidates agree to maintain the confidentiality and security of all examination materials and procedures, including the test questions in this examination. Please read and affirm your understanding and compliance with the statements below. In order to test, candidates must confirm and accept the conditions set forth below. Those who do not accept the terms of the confidentiality statement will not be permitted to take the examination and will forfeit all examination fees.

- I understand that the content of this examination is confidential, is the exclusive property of the Association of Social Work Boards (ASWB) and is protected by copyright, trademark, and intellectual property rights.
- I understand that I am not permitted to discuss the contents of this examination with anyone at any time. This includes during and after test administration.
- I agree and acknowledge that in preparing for this examination I have not accepted, used or relied upon items represented to me as actual items on the examination and that accepting and/or sharing such items will constitute a breach of this ASWB Confidentiality Statement and may be in violation of ASWB intellectual property rights.
- I understand that no materials in this examination may be copied, downloaded, reproduced, photographed, stored, distributed, used by, or transferred to any individual or group, through any means including memorization.
- I understand that anyone who appears to be engaged in any prohibited activity may have his/her examination terminated immediately and/or test score invalidated.
- I understand that violators of any part of these terms will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law, and that ASWB reserves the right to report any investigations, judicial and administrative decisions to all applicable administrative agencies, especially and specifically to social work licensing boards and to any other agency, including law enforcement.

- I understand that during the entire time I am taking the examination, including during any breaks I may take, I will not be permitted to use a telephone or communicate with any individual other than Testing Center personnel, and that any communication with others is grounds for immediate dismissal from the examination and invalidation of test results.
- I understand that if I leave the immediate vicinity of the testing room without a proctor escort, all test materials will be collected and I will not be permitted to resume testing.

I have registered to take the ASWB examination for purposes of applying for and becoming licensed in a particular United States or Canadian jurisdiction, and intend only to use the examination and my resulting score for such purpose. I hereby acknowledge and reaffirm the content of the examination registration materials, including remedies sections that set forth the remedies available.

I CERTIFY THAT I HAVE READ AND UNDERSTAND THE TERMS ABOVE AND WILL NEITHER GIVE NOR RECEIVE ASSISTANCE OF ANY NATURE.

ACCEPT - I have read the above statement and AGREE to the terms thereof. (You will proceed to the examination.)

DECLINE - I have read the above statement and DO NOT AGREE to the terms thereof, and understand that by selecting this option I will forfeit my examination appointment and examination fee. (You will NOT be permitted to proceed to the examination.)

Welcome to the Association of Social Work Boards Tutorial

This tutorial uses the same software as your scheduled examination.

The time used on the tutorial does not count against the time allocated for the examination itself.

The following screens contain instructions, suggestions for practice, and sample questions.

To ensure that you will know what to do when you begin your scheduled examination, please read and follow all of the instructions carefully and try everything suggested.

Correct answers to these sample questions are not necessary. Your performance on this tutorial is not scored or retained.

Instructions
Instructions for performing various techniques and information about how your test functions appear in blue text like this. Responding to the practice and answering the sample questions is optional.

Keeping Track of Time Remaining and Current Question

 A countdown clock is located in the lower right-hand corner of your screen. To view or hide the countdown clock, simply click the Time button. You may switch between viewing or hiding the clock as often as you wish throughout your testing session. You will receive a warning message 15 minutes before your testing time expires.

The Question Number of the item you are answering is always displayed in the lower left-hand corner of your screen as long as your examination is in progress. It is not necessary to click or type any command for it to appear.

Practice

Click Time on the toolbar and note the countdown clock in the lower right-hand corner of your screen. Click on Time again to make the clock disappear. Look to the bottom left-hand side of the screen to note the Question Number.

Marking Questions For Review

 When you are working on a question that you would like to come back to at a later time, simply click the Mark button above. You may use the Mark feature to flag as many questions as you like. You can mark questions you answer as well as questions you choose not to answer at first. The Mark button on the toolbar will appear light when you have marked a question for review.

PLEASE NOTE: If after marking a question for review, you move directly to the review screen, the question will not yet have an "X" in the "Marked" column. In order for this to happen, you must navigate to the next question by clicking the NEXT button above and moving to the next screen.

Practice

Click Mark on the toolbar to mark this question but DO NOT answer the question. Click Next to move to the next screen.

An X in the Marked column shows that you marked that question for review.

An X in the Answered column shows that an answer was recorded for that question.

An X in both the Marked and Answered columns for an item shows that you have both marked the question for review and answered it.

To go to a particular question, click on the question number to highlight it. Then click the OK button. (Or you may double-click on the question.) This process can quickly take you back to the last question in your examination.

To close the Review window and return to the current question, click Cancel.

To move the review window, place the mouse arrow over the blue bar at the top. Hold the left mouse button down, and drag it to the desired location.

You may return to the review window as often as you like during your exam time by clicking on the Review button on the toolbar.

PLEASE NOTE: If after answering a question, you move directly to the review window, the question will not yet have an "X" in the "Answered" column. In order for this to happen, you must navigate to the next question by clicking the NEXT button above and moving to the next screen.

Practice

Click Review on the toolbar and then uncheck the View marked questions only box. Click Cancel to return to this question.

Ending Your Exam

To end the exam you must click Next on the toolbar after answering the last question. Then you will receive a Warning Screen alerting you that you are about to end your exam. It will give you instructions on what to do if you wish to review your answers and what to do if you are ready to end your test.

Review If you have time and wish to review your responses, click on the Review button at the bottom of the Warning Screen. This will return you to the first question in the test. From the first question, you can click the review button on the toolbar to access the review window.

Continue If you are finished with your test and DO NOT wish to review, click on the Continue button at the bottom of the warning screen.

PLEASE NOTE: If you mistakenly click on the Continue button at this warning another warning will pop up asking you if you are sure you would like to end your exam. If you click Continue again then you will no longer be permitted to go back and change any answers and your test will end.

To continue, please click Next on the toolbar.
