FOLLOW THE 3-STEP PROCESS TO CREATE A PEARSON VUE TESTING PROFILE

All HPE users (new and returning) must create a new Pearson VUE web account. If you are a returning HPE candidate, enter the same HPE Learner ID (please, visit Find My Existing HPE Learner ID if you don’t remember your HPE Learner ID), First/Last name, and email that match your current Pearson VUE account on record. You will be immediately linked to your existing profile.

If you are a new learner will need to visit our Get Started page and select your company affiliation to create your HPE Learner ID.

Go to Pearson VUE and click on “Create account”.

HPE Certification and Learning Testing

ACTION REQUIRED FOR YOUR PEARSON VUE WEB ACCOUNT:
Starting July 5th, all HPE candidates (new and returning) need to create a new Pearson VUE candidate web account.

Please note: You must use the exact same first name, last name, email address, and HPE Learner ID (CCID) in order to connect your old account with your new account. Please take extra care to ensure the details and spelling are the same.
