

Programación de un Examen de Certificación de Microsoft con Pearson VUE

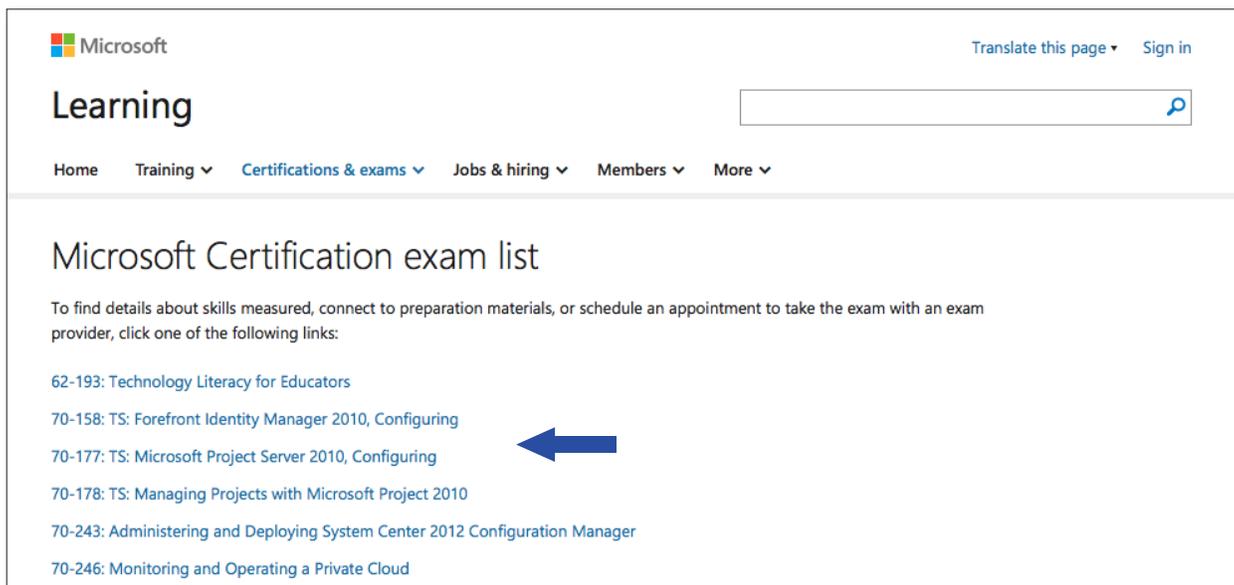

Antes de programar un examen de certificación de Microsoft en línea o en un centro de pruebas de Pearson VUE, todos los candidatos deben tener una cuenta de Microsoft y un perfil configurados en www.Microsoft.com/learning. A continuación, encontrará el procedimiento que deben seguir los candidatos para configurar la cuenta de Microsoft y el perfil para las pruebas.

Creación de una cuenta de Microsoft y un perfil para las pruebas

1. Vaya a www.microsoft.com/learning y siga las capturas de pantalla a continuación.
2. Elija “Registrarse para un examen”.

3. Elija el examen que le interesa.

4. Seleccione “Programar Examen”.

The screenshot shows the Microsoft Learning website interface. At the top left is the Microsoft logo. To the right are links for 'Translate this page' and 'Sign in'. Below the logo is the word 'Learning' and a search bar. A navigation menu includes 'Home', 'Training', 'Certifications & exams', 'Jobs & hiring', 'Your benefits & exams', and 'More'. The main content area is titled 'Exam 70-178' and features the Microsoft Project logo. The exam title is 'TS: Managing Projects with Microsoft Project 2010' with a price of '$150.00 USD*'. A note indicates 'Not in the United States?'. Below this, there is a 'Schedule exam' button. Additional information includes the publication date (February 15, 2011), language (English), audience (IT professionals), technology (Microsoft Project 2010), and credit toward certification (MCTS). At the bottom, there are links to 'Save to My Learning', 'Convince your boss', and 'Connect with us on @MSLearning'.

5. Debe iniciar sesión o crear una cuenta con una dirección de correo electrónico activa. Siga los pasos de “What’s this?” (¿Qué es esto?) si no tiene una.

The screenshot shows the Microsoft account sign-in page. On the left, there is a promotional banner with a laptop displaying a Microsoft account page, resting on a stack of books. The banner text reads 'Your account, our priority' and 'Adding security information helps protect your account'. On the right, the 'Sign in' section includes a link for 'Microsoft account What's this?', a text input field containing 'someone@example.com', a 'Password' input field, and a checkbox for 'Keep me signed in'. A blue 'Sign in' button is positioned below these fields. At the bottom of the sign-in section, there are links for 'Can't access your account?' and 'Sign in with a single-use code'.
