

Rhode Island Nursing Assistant Program

APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION BY EXAMINATION

PLEASE PRINT LEGIBLY — USE INK ONLY

You must complete this application if you wish to apply to take the NNAAP® Examination. You are responsible for completing this application. You may ask your employer or someone from your nursing assistant training program for assistance in completing this application. The personal information will be used only to determine your eligibility to test. Failure to provide complete and accurate information on the application may delay your nursing assistant test or prevent your entry on the Registry.

NOTE: You must also submit an application for licensure as a nursing assistant to the Rhode Island Department of Health. This application can be found and downloaded at <http://www.pearsonvue.com> (click on "Learn – View Program Information", then scroll down in "Select Your Program" and click on "Rhode Island Nurse Aides"). The Rhode Island Department of Health requires a passport-type 2 x 3 inch photograph, taken within one (1) year. In addition, an original BCI (criminal background check) from the Rhode Island Attorney General's Office only, dated within four (4) months (2 months for applicants who were licensed as a Nursing Assistant in Rhode Island) of the application date, with stamp and seal is required. If you have a positive BCI, a detailed explanation of the charge must be provided. Incomplete applications will be returned. The Rhode Island Department of Health must deem your application for licensure as a nursing assistant as complete before CCRI can schedule your examination date.
